

Proposed Athletic Boosters Organizational Structure (May 2016)

This structure would mean having a core group of 17 volunteers to head up the different positions if people did not overlap in positions over the course of the year. (Does not include the team parents). The tasks would be distributed across these positions.

See task descriptions on separate page.